The following statement will inform you as to how your personal information is collected and used in connection with the site, the purpose for which it is collected and used, with whom the information is shared, how long your information is stored, and what security measures are in place to secure and protect your information.

Collection and Use

For previous supporters, we retain the contact information collected from you at the time of your last ticket purchase. If you are a previous supporter who has provided us with your email address, we use this information to contact you about new lotteries. The database of buyer information used for this purpose was compiled from our previous purchaser records, both on and offline, and contains no financial information. You are also given the opportunity to unsubscribe from future lottery emails.

We do not automatically gather any additional personal information from you when you visit the site.

The email address that you voluntarily supply in the process of requesting a ticket is used for notification of future Kinsmen Home Lottery events. You have the option not to receive email notifications by way of a checkbox on the order form, emailing KinsmenHomeLottery@ca.ey.com or phoning 1-306-652-2500. If you are a past customer who has provided us with your email address, you may unsubscribe from future such emailing through the link provided in the advertising email sent to you. This email link contains a unique code that identifies you to the database and, for security purposes, is the sole means by which you can unsubscribe online.

The cell phone number that you may voluntarily supply in the process of signing up for text alerts will be used for sending you text message notifications of future such lottery events. You will have the option to cancel these text alerts by phoning 1-306-652-2500 or by replying STOP to any received text message.

Your mailing address is collected for two purposes: to send you your requested ticket(s) and to invite you to participate in future lottery events. You have the option not to receive direct mail pieces by emailing KinsmenHomeLottery@ca.ey.com or phoning 1-306-652-2500.
